PROSPECTUS

NASHVILLE UNION

THE NABRUILLE UNION WAS commenced a few weeks since, for the purpose of opposing the Rebel Southern Cenfederacy, and of advocating the restoration of Pederal authority, without any abatement, over all the States which have attempted to secode. It holds as friends all who support, and as form all who oppose the Union of the States. It has no watchword but FREEDOM AND NATIONALITY.

With rebels and traitors it has no compromise to make. It contends for the Federal Constitution and the Laws made in pursuance thereof as the Superms LAW OF THE LAND, anything in the Constitution and laws of any of the States to the contrary notwith-

It contends for the Union of the States, because wishout it the preservation of our Hberties and institutions and the organization of society itself are wholly impossible. Therefore, whatever stands in the way of crushing out the rebellion and restoring the Union must periab, no matter by what name it be

To the people of Tennessee, ever renowned for their levotion to Liberty and Union, until they were betrayed to the rebel despotism at Richmond by a perfidious Governor and corrupt Legislature, and who have felt so heavily the awful curse of treason and anarchy, we appeal for support. Let the names of rebal office-holders, Vigilance Committees, and Minute Men, who have filled our borders with mourning, be gibbetted before the world. Let those ambitious and avaricions men who have plotted our ruin for their own aggrandizement be fastened to the pillery of shame, no matter how high their position in society. Let it be shown how the self-styled defenders of Southern Rights" are now leading marauding bands of free-booters and moss-troopers over our State, kidcarping negroes, stealing horses and cattle, breaking the houses, burning railroad bridges and cars, and murdering quarmed citizens in cold blood - Let the truth, so long excluded by the Southern conspirators. now circulate freely through every neighborhood, and our cause wi I assuredly triumph. Will not loyal men everywhere aid us in the di-semination of facts and the advocacy of Free Government?

Terms of Subscriptions in Par Funds.

Owing to a very limited number of Post-offices at present in Tennessee, we have not yet been able to ommence the Tri weekly and Weekly issues. We will issue a Tri-weekly when we have five hundred, and the Weekly when we have a thousand subscri-

Editors of loyal newspapers will do us a great kindness by re-publishing the foregoing or its substance The current transactions in Tonnessee for months to come will be highly interesting to all lovers of their country and her free institutions, and the columns of the Union will furnish the earliest and most reliable history of these events.

Charge to the F. S. Grand Jury of the U. S. Bistrict Court.

Judge Catron having referred the Grand Jury to his charge delivered in St. Louis, it becomes our duty to publish it. It will be read with the deepest interest.

The prime idea and principle of Hell, treason and rebellion against law. The transition from a rebel to a devil is as natural as the transition of a tadpole to a frog.

The Union bugle has sounded and soon we shall have the gatherings of the Clams in every valley of the State.

An Eastern editor says that "General McClellan's blows are falling on the rebels rap, rap, rap." We don't know that he is much of a rapper, but he is good on the Rip Raps.

President Lincoln bears well the cares of office. His health was never better-and he is reported to have gained steadily in avordupois ever since his inauguration. He seems to be gaining in avoirdupoise and equipose.

What contemptible creatures are those who, while enjoying the protection of the Federal Government, are secretly threatening that all loyal men in Tennessee will be marked. Let them try to mark. Suppose they begin right

In speaking of the United States Circuit Court for this District, in yesterday's paper, we inadvertently called it the Supreme Court, although we suppose that our readers have already anticipated us in the correction.

When shall General Barrow return home? we are often asked. Not until he is an altered man. He was a great bore to us while here. Nothing but sincere repentance will enable him to save his bacon. He must be thoroughly cured of his treason.

Shakspeare says:

Let all the ends thou almst at be thy country's. Jeff Davis took his advice and aimed a the end of his country.

A rebel letter found at Shiloh, written from New Orleans some weeks ago, says that "one hundred and fifty able bodied women have formed themselves into a military company to fight the Yankees.' Just imagine a big edition of old Mrs. Caudle in her night-cap, broom in hand, striding forward, like Julius Cresar on the stage, and showing a pair of fat calves as thick as a brace of piano legs at each step, and then tell us if you don't think that the Rebels have got to a desperate shift in their warfare?

A Fallure.

Two men, hitherto active and prominent Secessionists, were conversing in a neighboring town the other day on the civil war. One of them remarked :-"The Southern Confederacy is hopelessly lost-the rebellion is an utter failure, and I am for the Union henceforth." The other concurred in the statement tors, who live at the Capitol, and is perfectly of his companion. What a blessing it accurate. The Adjutant General of Ohio would be if all disloyal men would thus thus endorses it : frankly confess their error and forsake a desperate and falling cause.

Men of the Union party, the present war which rocks the whole land like the upheavings of a mightyearthquake, will never be forgotten to the latest period of time. It will constitute hereafter one of the great historic events of the world. Then be heroic, bold, firm and conscientious. The eyes of all coming generations will anxiously read how you bore yourselves in this ordeal of fire. How do you desire to be remembered by posterity, as a | partuent. patriot, and friend of your race, or as a weak and trembling time-server, afraid to call your soul your own? Make your choice now. If you are Union men, be bold and resolute.

Information Wanted.

Will some one give us the information desired in this note?

BIGEYVILLE, Tenn., Maury Co., May 12. Mr. S. C. MERCER-Sir: If you can give information where the Confederate prisoners of the 23rd regiment of Tennessee Volunteers taken in the battle of Shiloh, you will confer a great favor by giving a notice in your Daily Nashville Union of where they are; you will re-lieve distressed parents and bring them under obligations to you for an act of Yours respectfully. JAMES LOCKE and wife. per WM, N. Mennax. Rumored Skirmish.

A gentleman who has just arrived here from Columbia, informs us that a dispatch had been received in that place reporting a severe skirmish between a porof Gen. Mitchell's division and a large body of rebels who were attempting to cross Tennessee river. The rebels were the abode of devils and damned souls, is driven back with the loss of five pieces of their artillery.

A Sad Mintake.

We learn that Mr. --, we shall spare his name-remarked the other day on hearing of a certain distinguished arrest: "Pooh! That won't amount to anything. It would not be wise for the Government to attempt to do anything with a gentleman of such high social standing. That is a rich one. We learn that such remarks are frequently made by our flippant rebels who plume themselves on being F. F. V's or owning a cotton plantation in regard to Harding, Barrow, Guild and others. Treason is not much after all. It is a mere difference of political opinion. And then if a man wears broad cloth, and drinks wine, and drives fine horses, he must not be punished as though he was a mere plebeian, a common mudsill. Certain men will find soon that they have made a terrible mistake. The storm of popular vengeance is swelling rapidly, and men who have held high social positions and continue traitors will be in infinitely more danger than they who are in the lowest walks of life. A few shining marks are needed for patriotic vengeance, and when the bow is taken up by the executioner he will draw the arrow to the head.

A Precious Scoundrel.

Daniel S. Donelson, Brigadier General in the Confederate service, while ordering his troops to burn other people's cotton and rice, in the Southern States, recently sold his own in Sumner county, Tennessee, for Yankee gold and "green-backs."-What a self-sacrificing Southern patriot is Gen. Donelson. He tells other people to be martyrs, but as for himself prefers "purple and fine linen" to "sackeloth and ashes," wine and turtle-soup to cruss andcold water. Imagine him rising from his table loaded with the choicest viands bought with the proceeds of his plantation, and going out among his neighbors to bid them burn their cotton for the good of the South and the protection of their rights! Why, we imagine that the very claret and roast beef would rumble in his belly, in remonstrance against such audacious impudence.

A Daniel come to judgment, yea a Daniel."

Verily, this Daniel shall be canonized among the saints of Dixie, and an aurerole of glory shall encircle his ambrosial

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, | COLUMBUS, O., April 24, 1862. To the General Assembly, &c.:

I have the honor respectfully to request that you make an appropriation for the purchase of one thousand copies of the Army Register of Ohio Volunteers, for the use of this Department, and five hundred copies of the same for the use of the Quartermaster-General. The book has been accurately compiled from the records of this office, and is now in press for publication by Messes. Hugtt, Allen & Co. It contains a complete list of the officers of Ohio Volunteers in the service of the Unl ed States, with a list of all camalties among the officers of which official no ice has been received at this De-

The necessities of the service require the publication of such a Register; and if it had not been undertaken by the parti s nam I should have been compelled to take the labor of it upon myself.

I have the honor to be, Your obedient servant. C. P. BUCKINGHAM, Adjutant Genera

Telegraphic Mews.

500 Rebel Soldiers Take the Oath, Washington, May 13.—The Wyandotte arrived this morning from the Rappahannock. Her officers report that the Freeborn and Island Belle went up to the Monkotonk on Saturday; and cut off two rebel schoners, one with a valuable cargo of whicky, and the other with stores.

The Belle proceeded up the river some distance, and discovered a body of about 500 rebel deserters from the Glocester Point batteries, who stated that when the order was given to evacuate, they being disgusted with the service, determined to march to the Federal lines and surrender. They belonged to a Virginia regiment. They offered to lay down their arms, and expressed a willingness to take the oath of allegiance, which Capt. Harris, of the Belle, administered to

NEW YORK May 13 -A movement is making by the Government which indicates a design on its part to assist the starving people of New Orleans, as in the case of those at Newbern and other points. A dispatch was received yesterday from Washington directog that the steamer Ocean Queen should be Woaded with commissary stores and sent down to New Orleans. It is understood that these stores are for distribution as General Batler may direct.

The mail to be sent to New Orleans this evening, by the steamer Connecticut, will be much larger than was expected. The number of letters which will be mailed before the Connecticut sails will reach 10,000, mostly on business.

Fast Morse Swapping.

A physician of Wilson county informs us that while riding along the road some ten miles from Lebanon, on the morning when Morgan's gang was cut to pieces, he met a rebel solder galloping along on a horse half-dead with fatigue. The rebel drew his pistol on the physician and ordered him to swap horses immediately. Which urgent demand our friend readily complied with, thus getting a very poor in exchange for a very fine horse. The physician mounted and jogged along on his new steed for near half a mile, when he met another guerrilla, also riding as though the devil was close after him. Rebel number two also presented his little hostile arrangement, and requested an immediate transaction in horse flesh. The doctor again complied, and got on his second horse. He trudged slowly along the road on his worn-out and panting Rosinante for nearly a mile when a him, who also, like his predecessors, made an exhibition of belligerent machinery, accompanied with a proposition to swap horses, and a request to be d--d quick about it. The doctor had by this time got so used to such sudden commercia transactions, and loosing any foolish attachment for his horse, just in proportion to the rapidity of his exchanges, that he smilingly got down a fourth time, and Produce & Commission Merchant. then, like John Gilpin, "got up again." Long before he reached his home he repeated this horse swapping, or rather had it repeated for him, no less than six times, he being rather passive in the business. The last horse he got was a very fine one, and better than the first. We have heard of places being so hot that "there was no time for swapping knives," but it appears that the hotter a place gets the better it is for swapping horses! This is the way in which these guerrillas get horses. Whenever a horse gets fatigued the first rider or team is stopped and a trade is

THE NEW CONSTITUTION OF ILLINOIS.-Eleven Illinois regiments have voted on the new constitution of the State, and of the whole number of votes cast, there were only sixty against it. This constitution denies the negro the right of emigrating to, or citizenship in, the State. So says the Boston Post.

Thus every developement of Northern feeling since the beginning of the rebellion proves the utter falseness of the charge made by Southern rebel leaders against the free States, that they mean to establish an equality of races in the exercise of political rights and social privileges. The charge was indeed first made by demagogues, to exasperate and Editor, Mr. Mercer, of the Nashville their Northern brethren, and it is repeated now for the same purpose. The people of the North are as violently opposed to negro equality as the people of the South are. The white and black races are in no more danger of a general mixconduct the Union for the good of the numerous experiments made on that point the 22d instant. by some freelove fire-enters.
